

Sticklepath Horseshoe Fell Run

This is a classic, beautiful but tough fell run from Sticklepath Village on the Northern edge of Dartmoor.

The course is 9.6 miles and involves a 1700 ft ascent over high moor land crossing rough unmarked terrain. It is held under the rules of the Fell Runners Association, race classification BM. There are a number of checkpoints but self navigation is required and all runners should be prepared for this. We recommend that all runners view the following website which provides full route details prior to the run:
